Product End-Of-Life Notice: Non-RoHS CoBox Micro10

Dear Valued Lantronix Customer,

Lantronix is pleased to announce the launch of RoHS versions of Micro10 products that will eventually replace all the existing versions of the Micro10. This action is necessary to be in compliance with upcoming (July 2006) RoHS regulatory requirements.

The current (non-RoHS) versions of the Micro10 products will be discontinued as explained further in this notice.

The new Micro10 RoHS version is form-fit-function equivalent to the existing Micro10. It can be used as Micro10 is used today.
